VERDI SPARKLETINI ADDS STRAWBERRY EXPRESSION

With bubbly rebounding, Carriage House Imports has extended their popular Verdi Sparkletini line, adding Strawberry. The light, refreshing spumante with natural fruit flavor makes an exceptional value as well as a great impulse item to stock in the cold box. And at 5% ABV, it appeals to consumers looking for lower alcohol. Strawberry joins the original Verdi Sparkletini, as well as flavors Peach, Green Apple, Raspberry and Açai.

MICHAEL MONDAVI FAMILY ESTATE LAUNCHES 'ANIMO'

Rob Mondavi Jr., along with his father, Michael Mondavi and sister, Dina Mondavi, have released "Animo." From a rugged Atlas Peak vineyard named by Dina for the site's animo—the Italian word for spirit—the 2010 is 83% Cabernet Sauvignon and 17% Petit Verdot, aged 20 months in 87% new French oak. The result is luscious and fruit-driven with hints of vanilla and spice.

PEAT LOVER'S SCOTCH BOTTLEINGS ARRIVE STATESIDE

The Scottish Knockdhu Distillery, known for the fertile turf on which it was built, is embracing its peaty identity; anCnoc (pronounced a-NOCK), a single malt produced by the distillery, is releasing a Limited Edition Peaty Collection. The first two expressions—Rutter and Flaughter, named after traditional peat-cutting tools—are both dark, bold and smoky and feature their peat phenolic levels on the bottle.
